Introduction to Counselling skills

Ever thought about a career in counselling? Does your work or volunteering involve talking to people, helping them, advising them? If so then the above course, which is suitable for those with no experience of counselling may be of interest to you. This new course offers an introduction into counselling skills in practice and will be extended to a full Level 1 course in counselling if there is sufficient interest.

South Holderness Adult Education Centre

Starts Thursday 5th May - 7:00-9:00pm
