1- Garage Sale

Although there were quite a few people selling, the event was poorly attended by buyers.

The weather was okay but had threatened to be poor, this may have put some people off.

Some villagers claimed that they weren't aware of the sale, but there were plenty of posters and it had been in the last newsletter.

2 - Lights Switch on - Sunday 1st December.

We will, as usual, provide mince pies and hot chocolate.

3 - Future events.

Possibly a dog show.

Our events, this year, have not been well attended. There may many reasons for this but it does fill us with much hope for any future events we might organize.

It is difficult to think what we might do to improve matters.
