Open Gardens and Scarecrows, July 8th

1 – St Alban's Church – The Ladies Group would provide scones and cream, tea, coffee, juice, and sandwiches. Customers would buy a 'raffle ticket' for £4 which would then entitle them to a sandwich, scone and drink. Proceeds will go to the Ladies Group.

2 – The old village hall site is very uneven and would difficult to mow, so we will use the space in front of St Alban's Church. There will be stalls (a) to buy tickets/maps for the open gardens (b) Lorraine Winter (c) tombola and (d) books.

Maps will be £1 per adult and 50p per child.

So far we have gardens:

Val Harrison

Greta and Mal Makinder

Paul Boyle and Karen Brown

Julianne and Mike Ashton

Barbara Tunnicliffe

Karen and Malcolm Bull

Mike Soper and Dawn Dickinson

The gardens will be judged by a form on the back of the map.

The scarecrows will be judged by Carol Wilkie and Freya.

Placing cones and parking cars will help to control the traffic near to St Alban's Church.

Gardens will be identified by means of large gingerbread men.

There will be notice boards at Whitedale, Hatfield Road and Aldbrough Road.

Paul Boyle will arrange a notice in the Hornsea Gazette (done). Also put posts on the Withernwick FB page and Discussion page.

We will meet at St Alban's Church at 10am on the Sunday to put up tables etc.
