This is a practical one day course during which you will prepare from fresh ingredients a 3 course meal.

Locally available and affordable ingredients will be used, ensuring that you can repeat what you learn at home.

Suitable for all levels.

Training and demonstration will be provided by a qualified cookery tutor.

All resources / ingredients that you will need will be included in the price of the course.

Course Fee: £70.00

Learning on Demand

In order to avoid disappointment we have not yet set a start date for this course.

We intend to take names and numbers of interested parties.

We need 12 people in order for the course to commence.

As soon as we have 12 names on our waiting list we will arrange a start date and time.

Why not come along with some friends and enjoy a fun, creative and professional 3 hour course?

If following the 3 hour taster you would like to do more cookery courses, just let us know.

Learning on Demand means that we put on the courses you want. when you want them.
