ALDBROUGH CHURCH WOMENS' FELLOWSHIP As agreed at our last meeting held on 11th May, our annual trip out would be to the Spring Garden Centre at Sigglesthorne and eleven ladies were transported there in three private cars. It was a beautiful day and they all enjoyed browsing around the Centre which not only sold a huge variety of plants and shrubs and every other requirement which a gardener might need but they also had a water garden section which I am sure, a few years ago, would have inspired a few of our ladies to begin re-designing their gardens! Bedding plants were purchased and then they retired to the café for refreshments and a welcome rest before being taken home by our very capable drivers. Many thanks to those who kindly acted as taxi drivers. What would we have done without you? The next meeting will be held on 13th July 2011 in the Wentworth Grove Community Centre at 2.00 p.m. Norma Potter

Richard Rice-Oxley's booklet is finally in print:

Paradox: Life's Puzzle and pathway

He has copies for sale £3.95 or you can order on line from sales@grovebooks.co.uk. 'Life is mysterious.

It is puzzling and paradoxical in many ways. This booklet explores some of the paradoxes we all face as human beings. It then considers paradoxes encountered by people of faith - especially Christians.
The second part turns to the lessons we can learn as Christians from the paradoxes that Jesus and Paul presented as the ingredients of a mature spirituality.
In the last section we see how Jesus himself lived the paradoxes he taught us to embrace. It is hoped that the booklet will encourage those facing challenges to their faith, as well as those wanting to grow in the Christian life.'
